ORDER

And now, this 9th day of October 2008, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion for Reconsideration of Sentence (Doc. No. 21) filed by An Duc Do (“Defendant”) is DENIED. On September 17, 2008, we imposed a sentence upon Defendant that included a fine of $15,000. Defendant now moves this Court to reduce the fine to $7,500. Defendant contends that reduction is warranted by the fact that Defendant’s employment was terminated after the sentencing hearing. However, at the sentencing hearing, Defendant specifically represented to this Court that he planned to resign. Because we have already contemplated this eventuality, Defendant has not brought any new information to our attention. In addition, the fine is necessary to reflect the seriousness of the offense, promote respect for the law, justly punish the offense, and adequately deter criminal conduct. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3553(a)(2)(A) to (B).
